

SECTION A

1. Why is English language teaching essential?
2. What is the need for learning spoken English?
3. How many are speech organs?
4. Name the air stream mechanism used for producing English sounds.
5. How many consonants are in English?
6. How many diphthongs are in English?
7. Define the Open Vowels.
8. Write the symbols for the long vowels in the words: hard, seal.
9. How many phonemes are there in the words: jungle, castle?
10. Define Nasals.

SECTION B

1. Write a note on problems in pronunciation.
2. Explain Phonetic symbols.
4. Narrate English as corporate language.
5. What are the characteristics of good conversation?
6. Discuss the effective use of vocal power.
7. What do you know about Indian languages and consonant clusters?
8. Write a short note on correct pronunciation.

SECTION C

1. Discuss about English in Post Colonial India.

2. Narrate how to make a Sales Talk.
3. What general preparation one should do before the Interview Process begins?
4. What do you know about Word Accent?

VARDHMAN MAHAVER OPEN UNIVERSITY, KOTA

C F E-02 (2)

SECTION A

1. Group the following words according to the pronunciation of the suffix-(e)s ladies, mats, garages, sweaters, books, societies.

2. Group the following words according to the pronunciation of the suffix-(e)d obeyed, tasted, behaved, tried, created, looked.

3. What is respiratory system?

4. Are sounds of English produced by inhaling air into the lungs or by exhaling air out of the lungs?

5. What is a diphthong?

6. What is complete closure?

7. Define semi-vowels.

8. What is syllable?

9. What do you know about weak forms?

10. What is Nucleus?

SECTION B

1. Write how to improve tone of your voice.

2. What are the intelligibility of Indian English and suggestions for improvement?

3. What is Inter and Intra language Interference?

4. What do you know about Phonetic Symbols?

5. What are the rules related to Prefixes?

6. Define Juncture.

7. 'Don't use meaningless gestures' explain it.

8. Write a short note on 'Affricates'.

SECTION C

1. Write an essay about ELT & Pedagogy.

2. Discuss what to avoid in conversation.

3. Explain 'To err is Language Learning'.

4. How will you improve your phone skills?

VARDHMAN MAHAVER OPEN UNIVERSITY, KOTA

C F E-02 (3)

SECTION A

1. What are Gliding Consonants?
2. Define the articulator system.
3. What are stressed and unstressed syllables?
4. Write the symbols for the long vowels in the words: card, half, meal, food.
5. State whether the following statements are true or false:

1. All vowels are oral.
2. When we pronounce 'o' there is lip rounding.
6. What is Lateral?
7. What is 'changing word shapes'?
8. Write full form of ESL and EFL.
9. Define Nasals.
10. Why should we learn English pronunciation?

SECTION B

1. Discuss Language Learning: L1 Vs L2.
2. Classify vowels based on the different tongue position made while articulating them.
3. Define Plosives.
4. Write about Final Sequence of Consonants.
5. Write a short note on Word Accent.
6. Write rules related to suffixes.
7. What is Complete Closure?
8. Explain 'Don't be a Grumbler'.

SECTION C

1. Write a note on 'Language Teaching and the Historical Perspective'.
2. Write the techniques of teaching pronunciation.
3. What should we do to 'Make a Good Conversation'?
4. What is the need for Learning Spoken English?